THE BATTLE IN IRKUTSK Siberian Exiles Form a Barricade and Fight the Czar's Troops.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily News says: The Russian government has been disagreeably impressed by the meetings which have been held in England and America to denounce the outrages upon

A correspondent in Siberia sends the details of the Irkutsk affair. He says that the prisoners involved in the affair were exiles who were suspected of having been concerned in the explosion at Zurich last March. They were allowed to live without restraint in Irkutsk and easily found employment among sympathizers who are opposed to the Russian system of exiling political prisoners to Siberia system of exiling political prisoners to Siberia.

All went well until the police discovered that the exiles were printing proclamations and sending them to Moscow. As soon as the authorities learned what was going on the leaders among the exiles were sent to labor in the mines and the others were told to prepare themselves for a journey into the interior. The unfortunate prisoners appealed in vain and at last resolved to sell their lives dearly.

No Cash in Hagerstown's Treasury. A dispatch in the New York Sun today says Hagerstown some time ago abolished the gas lamps and substituted electric lights. These cost the municipality $4.16 per month. For cost the municipality $4.16 per month. For several months the bills were punctually met, but now, owing to hard times, the city is unable to collect its taxes and the street commissioners have been compelled to notify the electric light company of their inability to meet payment for last month's service. The city council has been urged to provide some means to meet the bill at once. Otherwise the city will be in total darkness. Already some of the merchants, fearing the worst, are preparing to hang out coal oil lamps on the leading theroughfares.

Gen. Elphinstone's Tragle Death. Sinister rumors are affoat in London society regarding the recent death of Sir Howard Elphinstone.
